This is the perfect app for spanning multiple different age groups! They can change any of these as often as they like, or hit the Instant button to give them all four prompts at once. Students can add photos, videos, text, and illustrations to each page of the book they create. Advanced students will even write short sentences. For students at all levels, creative writing is an important part of English language arts curriculum. The automatic tracking and reporting feature makes it easy for parents, teachers and occupational therapists to identify time on task and progress. Get unlimited access to the 4 or 5-star teacher certified apps. Users can do pretty much everything in Evernote, for creating to-do list and checklist to drawing out specific notes to capturing receipt for tracking business expenses. Share it with others in the comments! Instead, it considers how different kids write. This is the perfect app for letting kids use their creativity while developing their fine motor and visual thinking skills. Best for wannabe authors OOKS, free, Apple and Android OOKS is an app with a difference, as it allows your child to create a hard copy of their very own book, with their name as the author. Have you used iPads to promote creative writing in your classroom? It is packed with all the rich features you need for creating reports, magazines, posters, newsletters, and many other document types. Get the best of Edutopia in your inbox each week. With this tool, you can create a cube with images on each side. Hand-picked educational apps by teachers that will improve your child's learning. Focus Writer: Focus writer is free, open source word processing program, runs on Windows, Mac, and Linux. The goal of this challenge is to have students incorporate the prompt into their story before the time is up. Click on the Story Maker icon, and it randomly gives your child a character, place, problem and time for them to use as the basis of their story. It has both free and paid versions available and runs on all operating systems. Letter School is a fun and engaging way to help children learn to write letters and numbers. It also finds things like numeral in the middle of the sentences, layout, compound words and abbreviation that appears in the different forms.
